Arkansas · written against TIMA 2 (no revision printed), issued under 49 CFR 580.13, 580.14 and 580.15

The odometer half of proxy selling, built to the federal pattern and subtitled Odometer Mileage Disclosure by Power of Attorney. Federal law will not let mileage disclosure be delegated casually, so this sheet reproduces the three-part machinery of 49 CFR 580.13 to 580.15: Part A has the transferor appoint the transferee as attorney-in-fact to disclose the vehicle mileage on the title; Part B has the transferee appoint the transferor to review the title and any reassignment documents for mileage discrepancies and, if none are found, acknowledge the disclosure; and Part C is the certification by the person who exercised the power that the mileage was disclosed on the title exactly as provided on this form. Its footer warning covers both directions: providing false information, or the failure of the person granted this power of attorney to submit this form to the State, may result in fines and/or imprisonment.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TIMA 2 from the Arkansas Department of Finance and Administration, Office of Motor Vehicle at https://www.dfa.arkansas.gov/wp-content/uploads/TIMA2_POWER_OF_ATTORNEY_TO_SIGN_FOR_OWNER.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	The vehicle band	Year, make, model, body type and the VIN the appointment rides on. Watch out: One vehicle per form. The certificate this sheet authorises writing on is identified by these characters and nothing else.
2	YOU	Part A: the reading and the date	The odometer figure in whole miles - no tenths, says the label - and the date of transfer. Watch out: This is the number your attorney-in-fact must copy onto the title exactly. Read it the day you sign, not from memory of the last oil change.
3	YOU	Part A: one of three boxes	ACTUAL mileage, EXCEEDS mechanical limits, or WARNING - NOT actual mileage. Watch out: Tick box 1 for the ordinary honest case - on this sheet the actual-mileage certification is explicit, not implied by silence.
4	YOU	Part A: execute the appointment	Your printed name, signature, date and address as transferor; the buyer's printed name and address as the transferee being appointed. Watch out: You are appointing the buyer attorney-in-fact to disclose the vehicle mileage on the title. Sign only when the reading and boxes above are final.
5	BUYER	Part B, only if the buyer is the absent one	The mirror appointment: the buyer appoints you to review the title and reassignment documents for discrepancies and, finding none, acknowledge the disclosure - with its own reading, boxes and signatures. Watch out: Complete the part that matches who is missing, and leave the other empty. A sheet with both parts filled says both parties were absent from their own sale.
6	OTHER	Part C: whoever used the power certifies	Signature, printed name, date and address of the person exercising the power of attorney, certifying the title was completed exactly as this form provides. Watch out: Then the form goes to the State with the title work - its own footer makes failing to submit it an offence with fines attached. Keep a copy on each side.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it when both parties are standing at the handover. The power exists for absence; two people who can both sign the title's own disclosure have nothing to delegate.
- A reading on this form that differs from what lands on the title. Part C certifies the title was completed exactly as provided on this form - any daylight between the two is the false statement the footer prices.
- Part C left empty. The certification by the person exercising the power is what closes the loop; without it the appointment was used but never accounted for.
- Not submitting the form to the State. The footer warning names the failure of the person granted this power of attorney to submit this form as its own offence.
- Treating it as a general power of attorney. It delegates mileage disclosure and title review; applying for a transaction or collecting a held title is the general Vehicle POA's job.

☐ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
