How to fill out REG 227 — Application for Replacement or Transfer of Title sellmycarhub.com

California · written against REG 227 (Rev 9/2024), issued under California Vehicle Code 4150, 5752 and 9265

</forms/california/reg-227-replacement-or-transfer-of-title/>

Replaces a California title that is lost, stolen or ruined - and, on the same sheet, transfers the car to a buyer without waiting for the replacement to arrive. Tick the second box at the top and the seller, the buyer and any lienholder all sign this one form instead of a certificate that no longer exists.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank REG 227 from the California Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/file/reg-227-pdf/> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	The two boxes at the top	Replacement Title means sections 1 to 3 and you keep the car. Transfer of Title with Replacement means the seller completes 1 to 4 and the new owner completes 6 and 7. Watch out: Ticking the wrong one is the difference between a title posted to you and a car registered to somebody else. Read both lines before you mark either.
2	YOU	Plate, VIN and year/make	The identification strip above section 1, written one character per printed box. Watch out: These are comb fields. Crowding two characters into one box is how a VIN becomes unreadable at the counter.
3	YOU	Section 1, registered owner of record	Print your name as it appears on the title or registration, with your driver licence number and state, then the physical address and county. Watch out: Not as it appears on your licence if the two differ - the form says as it appears on the Title/Registration and means it.
4	YOU	County of residence	The county you live in, or where the vehicle is principally garaged. Watch out: It has a line of its own because California registration fees vary by county. It is not optional detail.
5	LENDER	Section 2, legal owner of record	The bank or finance company holding a lien. Left empty when there genuinely is not one. Watch out: The form warns in bold not to enter the name of the owners above. Unlike section 7, a true blank is correct here.
6	YOU	Section 3, missing title statement	Tick one: Lost, Stolen, Illegible/Mutilated, Not Received from Prior Owner, or Not Received from DMV. Then print your name, sign, date, and give a phone number. Watch out: Illegible or mutilated means attaching the old title. Not Received from DMV means allowing 30 days from the issue date first. And if your address differs from the DMV's records, this has to be filed in person.
7	YOU	Section 4, release of ownership	Print, sign and date again - this is the part that actually releases the car. Watch out: The signature of each owner is required where co-owners are joined by AND, and California shows AND as a forward slash. A title reading SMITH / JONES needs both signatures.
8	LENDER	Section 5, legal owner release	The lienholder signing off, with a notary acknowledgement beneath it. Watch out: This is the only notarised part of the form, and it is not yours. It also cannot be used at all on a vehicle with an Electronic Lien Title.
9	BUYER	The vehicle strip again, on side two	Plate, VIN and year/make repeated at the top of the new owner's side. Watch out: The two sides are processed as one document but each carries its own identification. Filling one and not the other stalls it.
10	BUYER	Date purchased and purchase price	The date of sale in month, day and year, then the price. Watch out: The price is what the use tax is calculated on, so it wants to match the bill of sale and the release of liability.
11	BUYER	Gift or trade	Only where no money changed hands: tick gift or trade and write the market value instead. Watch out: A gift from a qualified relative also needs a REG 256 statement of use tax exemption attached, and the relative list is short.
12	BUYER	Section 6, new registered owners	True full name as shown on the buyer's licence, with the licence number, address and county. Watch out: The transfer has to be completed within 10 days of taking possession. That line is printed at the top of this side of the form.
13	BUYER	AND / OR between co-owners	If the car is going into two names, the buyers pick AND or OR on the tick boxes between the name lines. Watch out: That single choice decides who has to sign the next time the car is sold. AND means everybody; OR means either one.
14	BUYER	Signatures, dates and contact details	Each new owner signs for themselves, with a date, phone number and email. Watch out: A company or business signature must include the printed company name and an authorised representative's countersignature - the form gives the format: ABC CO., by JOHN SMITH.

15	BUYER	Section 7, new legal owner	The buyer's lender. If there is none, write None. Watch out: Here the blank is not acceptable - the form asks for the word. An electronic lienholder also needs its ELT number and its details exactly as they appear on the ELT listing.
16	DEALER	Section 8, dealer's release	For a dealership releasing a car it acquired. Watch out: It stays empty on a private sale. Nothing about it applies to either of you.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it to release an electronic lien. The first line under the title says the form cannot be used to release a lien on a vehicle with an Electronic Lien Title, and that is a hard stop.
- Filing by mail when your address has changed. If your address differs from the DMV's records you must file in person with proof of ownership and your licence or ID card.
- Filing within 90 days of a previous replacement, without a CHP vehicle verification attached - the form requires one.
- One signature on a title held by co-owners joined by AND. California shows AND as a slash, and people read the slash as OR.
- A company signature without the countersignature. The form gives the format twice: ABC CO., by JOHN SMITH, or JOSEPH SMITH for ABC CO.
- Using section 5 or a REG 166 to release a lien on a vehicle two model years old or newer where the lender is not an ELT participant. The lender has to replace the title first, then release interest on the actual certificate.
