How to fill out MV81A — Security Interest Processing: Assign/Transfer

Montana · written against MV81A (7/26), issued under MCA 61-3-111 and 61-3-220(4); filed with the Vehicle Services Bureau

sellmycarhub.com

/forms/montana/mv81a-security-interest-assign-transfer/

The form that moves a security interest from one lender to another without touching who owns the car - a loan sold on, a credit union merged, a servicing book transferred. It matters to a seller for a reason its title does not advertise: the manual also names it as the forced-title route. Where a buyer has let the forty days run out, MCA 61-3-220(4) lets the secured party pay the title and lien fees itself and have a title issued, and this is the form it submits. The purchaser's signature is not required in the title application section when that happens.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank MV81A from the Montana Department of Justice, Motor Vehicle Division, Vehicle Services Bureau at <https://mvdmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/2026/07/MV81A-Security-Interest-Processing-Assign-Transfer-07.26F.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

|   |        |                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---|--------|----------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | LENDER | Section 2: the vehicle and its title number | Year, make, model, Montana title number and VIN. Watch out: Everything on this form hangs off the title number. It is the field to check against the certificate rather than against a loan file.                                                              |
| 2 | LENDER | Section 3: the borrower, unchanged          | Both borrowers by legal name and identification number, with contact details for the first. Watch out: If the borrower has genuinely changed, this is the wrong form - an assignment moves the lender's side only.                                             |
| 3 | LENDER | Section 4: the assignor                     | The lender giving up the interest, by legal name and identification or ELT number. Watch out: Where more than one party holds the interest, every name goes on the additional assignors row. A partial list is an assignment nobody can rely on.               |
| 4 | LENDER | Section 4: the assignee                     | The lender taking it on, with its identification or ELT number and full mailing address. Watch out: The assignee is who a release will have to come from afterwards. If you are the owner, this is the name that matters when you eventually pay the loan off. |
| 5 | LENDER | Section 5: both lenders sign                | Assignor and assignee signatures with dates, each certifying authority to sign for its own business. Watch out: One signature is not an assignment. The department is recording a transfer between two parties, and both have to say it happened.              |

What gets this one rejected

- One signature. Both the assignor and the assignee sign, and each certifies its own authority to sign for the business named.
- A co-holder left off. The form's own instruction on the additional rows is that if the security interest is held by more than one person, names must be listed.
- A borrower identification number omitted. Both borrower fields are marked required, as they are on the MV81B.
- The wrong title number. The department attaches the assignment to a record; a title number from a certificate that has since been replaced points at a voided document.
- No fee. The $8.24 must accompany this form to be processed.
