How to fill out MV-900 — Notice of Lien

New York · written against MV-900 (12/24), issued under the Uniform Motor Vehicle Certificate of Title Act, title X article 46 of the New York Vehicle and Traffic Law

sellmycarhub.com
/forms/new-york/mv-900-notice-of-lien/

The form that put the lender's name on your certificate in the first place. It is not a seller's form and you cannot use it to remove anything - it is here because it is what a seller finds when they search for how a New York lien works, and because understanding it explains why the document you actually need looks nothing like it.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank MV-900 from the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://dmv.ny.gov/forms/mv900.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	LENDER	Identification number and vehicle	The identification number, year, make and body type, with the borrower's plate number if there is one. Watch out: Check this against your own certificate if a lien you do not recognise appears on it. The DMV's advice for a lienholder unknown to you is to contact a DMV contact centre rather than to assume it is an error.
2	LENDER	Owner information	Your name and licence number as the borrower, and the mailing address the new certificate will be posted to. Watch out: The name has to match the certificate exactly. This is why a lien sometimes fails to record against a title held in a slightly different version of the same name.
3	YOU	Owner's statement and signature	The borrower signs to acknowledge that the lienholder is sending the notice in and that any existing certificate went with it. Watch out: It must be an original signature, and if a power of attorney is used a copy of it has to be attached. This is the one line on the form the borrower actually completes.
4	LENDER	Lien information	The filing code the DMV assigned the lender, the lienholder name and address, the lienholder's signature and the date of the security agreement. Watch out: The lienholder's signature may be a facsimile stamp - which is worth knowing, because the release you will later be handed may not look hand-signed either.
5	LENDER	Has a certificate been issued to this borrower?	Yes or no. If yes, the existing certificate is attached and goes to Albany. Watch out: This is why a car financed after purchase disappears for a few weeks: the certificate physically travels to the Title Bureau and comes back reprinted with the lender on it.

What gets this one rejected

- A seller sending it in. It is filed by the lienholder, with the $5 fee paid by the lienholder, and the form says the lien fee cannot be paid by the owner.
- Handwriting anything but the signatures. The instruction is that all information except signature must be typed, and illegible information means the lien is simply not recorded.
- A name that does not match the certificate exactly. That is the single condition the form states for recording at all.
- Using it to remove a lien. Nothing on this form releases anything - it is the filing document, and the release is a different piece of paper entirely.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.

Read off MV-900 (12/24) and the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles's own pages, current as of 2026-08-23. Plain-language help with a form, not legal advice — where this and the agency differ, the agency governs.
