Tells the state that an insurer has paid a total loss and the owner has kept the car. It is the insurance company's form and the insurance company's signature - but it is the document that starts your clock, because until it is filed and a salvage title issues you may not sell the vehicle at all.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank VTR-436 from the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles at https://www.txdmv.gov/sites/default/files/form_files/VTR-436.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	AGENT	Vehicle information	VIN, year, make, body style, model, plate and title number. Watch out: Check the VIN against your own title before the insurer files. A wrong digit here follows the car.
2	AGENT	Insurance company information	The insurer, its address, and the authorised agent handling the claim. Watch out: This is your evidence of who to chase if the report never reaches the department.
3	AGENT	Claim information	Your name and address as the insured or claimant, the date the claim was paid and the claim number. Watch out: The date of claim payment is the one that matters - the insurer has until the 31st day after it to file.
4	AGENT	Damage disclosure	Wrecked, burned, flood or stripped, then salvage or nonrepairable, then the major-component grid. Watch out: Ask which boxes were ticked. Nonrepairable means the vehicle can never be titled for the road again - that is a different outcome from salvage and worth knowing before you agree to anything.

What gets this one rejected

- You filing it. The whole top half asks for an insurance company, an authorised agent and a claim number. A vehicle owner has none of those.
- Leaving the damage type blank. The tick boxes are what put a flood notation on the eventual title rather than a bare salvage brand.
- Confusing salvage with nonrepairable. One tick, and they lead to different documents and different futures for the car.
- Filing it late. The insurer has until the 31st day after paying the claim, and the owner cannot move until it is done.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
